From the Lay Director.....

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

Well, I finally took down the last of my outdoor Christmas lights on January 23. I was going to take them down the weekend before, but I did not think working on a ladder in the snow was a good idea. These lights were a big part of the blessing that I felt this past Christmas season to be able to see color.

I went to get started taking down the lights. I had to search to find the end of the top string so I could start unwinding the light strings from the tree. Next year I'll have to remember to take a picture or hang a flag to make it easier to find the end. Took me almost as long to find where to start unwinding as it did to do all the unwinding.

Got me to thinking about all of those potential pilgrims out there. They have an awareness that they should, they need, to take the next steps on their walk with Christ. They are wondering how to do that. They are wondering how and where to get started. My brothers and sisters, that is where we come in. Be on watch. Start talking now. Be on watch for those in your circle who are seeking more of God's presence in their life. Be on watch for those who are willing to take on leadership roles in your church. Take a risk and invite them to go on the Walk to Emmaus.

Looking forward to seeing you at the February Gathering. We will revisit our experience of learning of God's prevenient grace.

De Colores!

In January, enjoyed about 40 people on the zoom, and it was great to see a lot of old and new friends. New Board Member Bob Fortney brought us a great remembrance of what the "Priority" talk is all about. This month, we'll get to hear a 4th Day talk modeled on the Prevenient Grace talk. Besides bringing back memories of our own walks, hearing these talks will help us gear up and prepare talks for our next walks in a Post-COVID world. Remember, each household in attendance will need to prepare bread and juice, and again it can be whatever you have on hand. The Holy Spirit understands.

Come and Join us! Just click the Button below.
