Men's Walk 139

We lost two pilgrims, one before and one during the walk, due to illness. But, the Holy Spirit proved Himself again and again to the eleven men we were allowed to keep with us. Dying Moments saw Him deliver many. There was so much rejoicing and excitement over new-found freedom that we were unable to maintain the period of silence and reflection. Unbounded joy was the theme of lunch and the rest of the day. This led to a Candlelight of great intensity and presence of God. Several testified they had despaired of life in the Church but were renewed with the demonstrated outpouring of love and unity by the body of Christ at Agapeland and Candlelight.

If we are faithful to just be there, to present our bodies as living sacrifices (Romans 12:1-2), He does miracles through a scripted “little course”. I am so grateful to be allowed to see Him work one more time. More at the Gathering!

From the Community Lay

Director....

Every day I take my dog, Raylan, for a walk and every day we have the same pattern. In order to get all of the energy out of this border collie, I have to let him run our gravel driveway (which is about a quarter of a mile long) off of the leash. He is a very smart dog, so when I say the word "walk" he waits where I have the harness and leash until I strap him into it. I then open the front door where he proceeds to leap off of the porch and run as fast as he can thru the yard and down the first hill of my driveway. He then pauses there until he sees me start down that same hill before running around chasing squirrels, deer or any other creature between my house and the end of my driveway. Luckily, he always waits for me at the end of the driveway, so that I can hook the leash onto the harness and proceed with our walk on the paved road. After walking about two miles we are back to our driveway, where I proceed to let him off of the leash again for the remainder of our walk. But by this time, most of his excess energy has been exhausted and he remains fairly close to my side.

New Lexington Emmaus members, you have had an extraordinary weekend with God. My prayer is that you use some of the tools you learned over the weekend, to keep your stool (or your life) in balance. You probably rushed off of the porch of the weekend, with all of this excess energy to serve Christ, but after a while the world has caused that energy to flatten. You may have chased after some "squirrels" and busyness has crept back into your life. Life has a way of doing that, but perhaps we can learn the same lessons Raylan has. He has learned to wait on me during our walk, just as we need to wait on the Lord on ours. Even though Raylan wanders off from time to time, he always ends up walking beside me. My prayer is that we can do the same. Even though we wander off our path, we come back to Christ and walk with him instead of in front of Him or away from Him.

See you at the Gathering!

From the House of Agape:

We are implementing a new policy, starting with the current Walks. Since Sunday is such a hectic day, especially for the Agape team, all the leftover Agape will be brought to the next Gathering after a set of Walks has commenced.

Since this is a new policy, all the leftover Agape from previous Walks will be available as well.

Come and pick up the Agape you made so that you already have a head start for the next walks.

Chrysalis Flight 39: February 15 - 17, 2020

Community please be in Prayer for this Flight. Pray for the Team development, Caterpillars, and each other. Now is the time to look around you and talk to your youth about attending this Flight. If you need help please reach out to me or other Emmaus Members. We still need youth that have attended a Flight or Journey to be a part of this Flight. It is a time for you to share your Faith and Your LOVE to the Future Butterflies. What a better way to show Christ's LOVE than to be a part of this Flight.

Fly with Christ
